

The Paul Royter Show

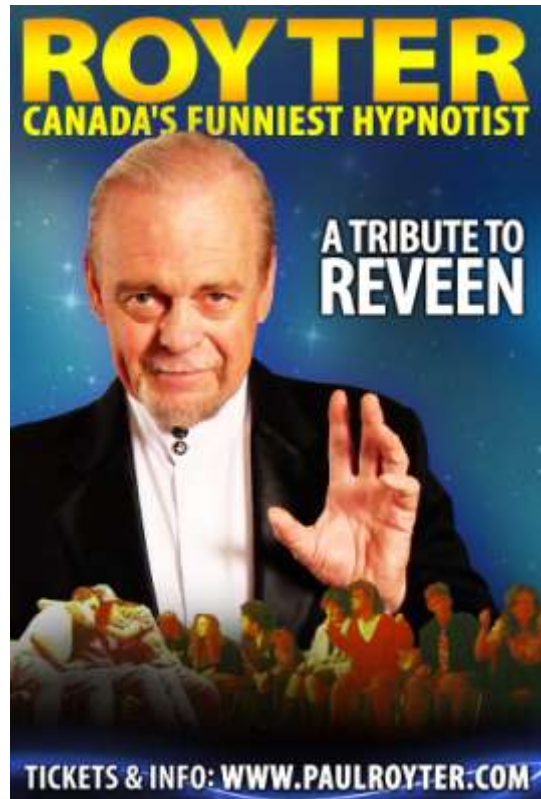

A Tribute to Reveen

Canadian born hypnotist, Paul Royter, is considered to be one of the greatest performing hypnotists in the world today. For more than 35 years, his renowned hypnotic comedy shows have been astounding audiences around the world from the southern tip of New Zealand, to as far north as Iceland.

This years Thanksgiving Maritime Tour is being dedicated to the legendary hypnotist and entertainer Peter Reveen, who has been an inspiration to Paul from the very first time he saw him perform in 1976.

When you attend one of Paul's hilarious shows, it will become obvious that 35 years of dedication to the art of making people laugh has paid off. Paul connects with his audience in a way that has to be seen to be appreciated. The whole family will laugh hysterically at what promises to be one of the funniest stage shows you will ever see.

If you plan to see just one comedy show this year, then don't miss "Paul Royter's Tribute to Reveen." It's sure to be an evening you will remember the rest of your life.

READ WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT PAUL

"My company here in New Zealand has had Paul perform his amazing hypnotic comedy shows for three consecutive years in a row. The show is just too funny to even begin to explain, but the fact that over 30,000 people across the country have flocked to see him each year, should speak for itself."

Gene McCarthy - International Entertainment - Auckland, N. Z.

"It's never the same show twice. The entertainment is as diverse and individual as the audience itself, when famed Canadian hypnotist Paul Royter takes to the stage again tonight at the Centennial Auditorium.

Bridget Davidson - Star Phoenix - Saskatoon

"The popularity of the performance is shown by the fact the audience filled the house for the opening two nights. Hundreds of people anxiously waited in line for the show again last night."

Rachele Labreque - Timmins Daily Press

"You have a rare and unusual talent. Keep striving to be the best and one day you will be."

Doug Henning - Magician

"A true showman in every sense of the word. He not only kept the audience captivated with his hypnotic style, but they fell completely under his spell. This is the true mark of a real entertainer."

Obrian Roberts - Bermuda Sun
